

Virginia – the following programs: Medicine, Osteopathic Medicine, Podiatry, Chiropractic, Physician Assistant, Occupational Therapy, Respiratory Care, Licensed Acupuncture, Athletic Training, Certified Professional Midwifery, Radiologic Technology, Polysomnography, Behavior Analysis, Radiologist Assistant, Surgical Assistant and Surgical Technologists

- Alabama – Covers Medicine and Osteopathic Medicine
- Alaska – Has a program similar to New Mexico (Option 1) – Here is the link: <https://www.commerce.alaska.gov/web/cbpl/ProfessionalLicensing.aspx>
- Arizona – Like Oklahoma currently – covers licensure for MDs, Physician Assistants and Medical Assistants. There is a separate Board for Osteopathic Examiners
- Arkansas – Has program similar to Virginia (Option 2). Covers Medical Doctors, Physician Assistants, Occupational Therapy Assistants, Radiology Practitioner Assistants, Doctors of Osteopathy, Occupational Therapists, Respiratory Therapists, Medical Corporations
- California – similar to Oklahoma currently – has separate boards for Medical Doctors and Osteopathic Doctors.
- Colorado -- Has a hybrid New Mexico (Option 1)/ Virginia (Option 2) program – Here is the link to the overall program: <https://www.colorado.gov/pacific/dora/node/87936> Here is the link to the specific Healthcare Professionals licensure program: <https://www.colorado.gov/pacific/dora/HPPP>
- Connecticut – Has their health professional licensure program within the Department of Health (Option 4). Here is the link: http://www.ct.gov/dph/cwp/view.asp?a=3121&q=389526&dphNav_GID=1821
- Delaware -- Has a program similar to New Mexico (Option 1) – Here is the link: <http://dpr.delaware.gov/>
- Florida -- similar to Oklahoma currently – has separate boards for Medical Doctors and Osteopathic Doctors.
- Georgia – Has a composite Medical Board similar to Virginia (Option 2), that covers: Acupuncturist, Auricular Ear Detoxification Technician, Clinical Perfusionist, Cosmetic Laser Practitioner, Pain Management Clinic, Physician, Physician Assistant (including Anesthesiologist Assistant), Resident Training Physician, Respiratory Care Professional, Orthotist and/or Prosthetist, Nurse Protocol (APRN) Agreement. Here is the link: <http://medicalboard.georgia.gov/>
- Hawaii -- Has a program similar to New Mexico (Option 1) – Here is the link: <http://cca.hawaii.gov/overview/>
- Idaho – Has a single board of medicine that covers all physicians and surgeons, physician assistants, athletic trainers, dietitians, respiratory therapists, and polysomnographers. Here is the link: <http://bom.idaho.gov/BOMPortal/Home.aspx>
- Illinois -- Has a program similar to New Mexico (Option 1) – Here is the link: <http://www.idfpr.com/>
- Indiana -- Has a program similar to New Mexico (Option 1) – Here is the link: <http://www.in.gov/pla/index.htm>
- Iowa – has a combined M.D. and D.O. Board that also covers Acupuncturists.
- Kansas – Has a program similar to Virginia (Option 2). Has a Board of Healing Arts that covers: Athletic Trainer, (D.C.) Doctor of Chiropractic Medicine, (D.O.) Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and Surgery, (D.P.M.) Doctor of Podiatric Medicine, (L.R.T.) Radiologic Technologist, (M.D.) Doctor of Medicine and Surgery, (N.D.) Doctor of Naturopathic Medicine, (O.T.) Occupational Therapist, (O.T.A.) Occupational Therapy Assistant, (P.A.) Physician Assistant, (P.T.) Physical Therapist, (P.T.A.) Physical Therapist Assistant, (R.T.) Respiratory Therapy, Contact Lens Distributor. Here is the link: <http://www.ksbha.org/main.shtml>

- Kentucky – Board of Medical Licensure is a single board that covers both medical and osteopathic physicians and also covers Assistants, Surgical Assistants, Athletic Trainers and Acupuncturists
- Louisiana – Is similar to Virginia (Option 2), has a medical licensure board that covers the following: Physicians (MD and DO), Acupuncturists, Acupuncturist Assistants, , Athletic Trainers, Clinical Laboratory Personnel, Medical Psychologists, Licensed Midwives, Occupational Therapists/Occupational Therapy Assistants, Podiatrists, Perfusionists, Polysomnography Personnel, Private Radiological Technologists. Here is the link: <http://www.lsbme.la.gov/>
- Maine -- similar to Oklahoma currently – has separate boards for Medical Doctors and Osteopathic Doctors.
- Maryland – Has a program similar to Virginia (Option 2) contained within the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene. There is a combined board for MDs and DOs and also covers “Allied Health Practitioners” which are: Athletic Trainers, Nuclear Medicine Technologists, Perfusionists, Physician Assistants, Polysomnographic Technologists, Radiation Therapists, Radiographers, Radiologist Assistants, Respiratory Care Practitioners. Here is the link: <http://www.mbp.state.md.us/index.html>
- Massachusetts – Licensure is within the Massachusetts Department of Health and Human Services (Option 4).
- Michigan -- similar to Oklahoma currently – has separate boards for Medical Doctors and Osteopathic Doctors.
- Minnesota -- similar to Oklahoma currently – except the licensure board for Medical Doctors and Osteopathic Doctors are combined.
- Mississippi – Web site to the Mississippi Board of Medical Licensure is not working at the present time to be able to assess what is covered.
- Missouri -- Has a program similar to New Mexico (Option 1) – Here is the link: <http://www.pr.mo.gov/>
- Montana – All professional licensing is within the Montana Department of Labor and Industry. Here is the link to the professional licensing portion of the agency’s web site: <http://bsd.dli.mt.gov/license/license.asp>
- Nebraska -- Licensure is within the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services (Option 4).
- Nevada -- similar to Oklahoma currently – has separate boards for Medical Doctors and Osteopathic Doctors.
- New Hampshire -- Board of Medicine is a single board that covers both medical and osteopathic physicians and also covers Physician’s Assistants.
- New Jersey -- Has a program similar to New Mexico (Option 1) – Here is the link: <http://www.njconsumeraffairs.gov/>
- New York -- Has a program similar to New Mexico (Option 1) – Here is the link: <http://www.op.nysed.gov/>

- North Carolina – Similar to Virginia (Option 2) – The North Carolina Medical Board licenses MDs, DOs, Physician's Assistants, Licensed Perfusionists, and Anesthesiology Assistants. Also the Board registers Polysomnographis technologists, professional corporations and limited liability corporations. Here is the link: <http://www.ncmedboard.org/>
- North Dakota – Board of Medicine licenses MDs, DOs, Physician Assistants, Genetic Counselors and Fluoroscopy Technicians.
- Ohio -- Similar to Virginia (Option 2) – The Ohio Medical Board licenses MDs, DOs, Acupuncture, Anesthesiologist Assistant, Cosmetic Therapy, Genetic Counselors, Massage Therapy, Oriental Medicine, Physician's Assistants, Radiologist Assistant. Here is the link: <http://med.ohio.gov/>
- Oregon – The Oregon Medical Board licenses MDs, DOs, and Physician Assistants.
- Pennsylvania -- similar to Oklahoma currently – has separate boards for Medical Doctors and Osteopathic Doctors.
- Rhode Island -- Licensure is within the Rhode Island Department of Health (Option 4).
- South Carolina -- similar to Oklahoma currently – has separate boards for Medical Doctors and Osteopathic Doctors.
- s. Tennessee -- similar to Oklahoma currently – has separate boards for Medical Doctors and Osteopathic Doctors.
- Texas – Texas Medical Board licenses MDs, DOs, Has a Physician Assistants Board and a Board that licenses individuals who perform Acupuncture.
- Utah -- Has a program similar to New Mexico (Option 1) – Here is the link: <http://www.dopl.utah.gov/>
- Vermont -- similar to Oklahoma currently – has separate boards for Medical Doctors and Osteopathic Doctors.
- Washington -- similar to Oklahoma currently – has separate boards for Medical Doctors and Osteopathic Doctors.
- West Virginia -- similar to Oklahoma currently – has separate boards for Medical Doctors and Osteopathic Doctors.
- Wisconsin -- Has a program similar to New Mexico (Option 1) – Here is the link: <http://dsps.wi.gov/Home>
- Wyoming – Wyoming Board of Medicine licenses MDs, DOs, and Physician Assistants.

I obtained the information above, using the links from this web page: <http://www.ama-assn.org/ama/pub/education-careers/becoming-physician/medical-licensure/state-medical-boards.page>